

ACCESSIBILITY GUIDE TWENTY TWENTY-FOUR

ADELAIDE FRINGE

SIXTEEN FEBRUARY TO SEVENTEEN MARCH TWENTY TWENTY-FOUR

This guide has been designed in black and white and large print to be more accessible for people who are low-vision.

MEET OUR TWENTY TWENTY-FOUR AMBASSADORS

Adam Liaw

"I'm so proud to be an Ambassador for a festival that is so strongly committed to making participation accessible to all. The shows that all the artists work so hard on shouldn't exclude people who want to be a part of the festivities and fun. As a cook, I know that cooking like festivals, is for everyone." An Auslan Interpreted session for 'The Cook Up with Adam Liaw LIVE' will be available on Friday One March.

Prinnie Stevens

"I am a huge advocate for opening the doors to one and all. I believe that the creative arts should be accessible to everyone no matter the circumstance. I believe we should be doing all we can to make our work accessible. I hope everyone can be moved by my story that fights for the rights for all." An Auslan Interpreted session for 'Lady Sings The Blues Volume Two' is available on Tuesday Twenty February.

Issac Humpries

"I'm more than thrilled to be an Ambassador for Adelaide Fringe, a festival that endeavours to make art and culture accessible for all. Let's make twenty twenty-four one to remember!" An Auslan interpreted session for 'Isaac Humphries - Unearthed' is available on Saturday Sixteen March.

Welcome Niina Marni!

Adelaide Fringe recognises Kurna Yarta Miyurna First Nations people and their ancestral lands and waterways on which Fringe lives, operates and learns. The lands were never ceded and remain as important to the living Kurna people today. We pay respect to the Kurna people and their Elders past and present.

Fringe events take place across fifteen different traditional language, social and Nation groups: Andyamathanha, Arabana, Banggarla, Bindjali, Buandig, Kurna, Kokatha, Meru, Narangga, Ngadjuri, Ngarrindjeri, Nawu, Nukunu, Peramangk, Wirangu.

We are ready to go “All In” on Adelaide Fringe Twenty twenty-four! After a massive twenty twenty-three festival where we sold one million tickets, Adelaide Fringe continues to grow in attendance and offering, with our program becoming more diverse each year. We were elated to be recognised for our efforts in accessibility at the twenty twenty-three South Australian Tourism Awards, recently taking out the Excellence in Accessible Tourism category. Of course we recognise there is so much more we can do, and this year have introduced even more initiatives to better serve our community. We continue to work closely with J F A Purple Orange through consultations to factor in how we can be more inclusive and supportive of people who live with disability. We are proud to be partnering with Breakthrough Foundation, Guide Dogs S A/ N T, Access to Arts, Autism S A, Deaf Connect, and S A Care to continue moving forward to a more inclusive community. Happy Fringe-ing!

Heather Croall
Director and Chief Executive

Adelaide Fringe continues to work closely with our Artists, Venues and Partners. We are thrilled to see substantial growth in the number of shows with accessibility provisions this year. Fringe has updated its accessibility icons to better communicate venue environments with audiences and remain fully dedicated to delivering a world-class festival for everyone. New initiatives have been introduced to make our festival even more accessible, including staff training to recognise hidden disabilities, visual communication boards and hearing loops at box offices, additional venue accessibility videos and social stories for venues, and sensory support for all Fringe-run events. We hope this guide enhances your Fringe experience!

ACCESSIBILITY PARTNERS

Deaf Connect

Deaf Connect is the leading service provider and social impact organisation for Deaf, Deafblind and hard of hearing Australians. We are the largest employer of Deaf Australians, a registered NDIS provider and provider of in-home care for seniors. Deaf Connect is Australian's premier Auslan interpreting agency, and sign language training provider (R T O Provider Number Four One One Nine Two). Our team in Adelaide support the South Australian Deaf community, with a focus on culture and empowerment; supporting Deaf Australians and their families to thrive.

Guide Dogs S A / N T

For more than sixty-five years, Guide Dogs has used our expertise in dogs and vision to promote independence, participation, inclusion, and wellbeing for people with low vision, blindness, and other specialised support needs. We're committed to improving accessibility in the community through practical support, advocacy, and education. We know that no two journeys are the same, and we are committed to providing flexible support that is tailored to client needs.

Autism S A

Autism S A is a profit-for-purpose organisation focused on empowering and supporting autistic people to achieve their goals and live the life they choose. Alongside delivering valuable services and supports, we advocate for the autistic and autism community. We achieve this through our community partnerships by collaborating to support inclusion for all.

Access Two Arts

Access Two Arts works to amplify the voices of Deaf and disabled people in the arts and celebrate their unique perspectives, stories and aesthetics. We support Deaf and disabled South Australians to get involved in the arts as audiences and artists; and help Arts and cultural organisations to become more inclusive and accessible.

Look out for this icon next to listings to find Access Two Arts' Top Picks for this Fringe season.

Breakthrough Foundation

Breakthrough is Australia's only dedicated mental health research foundation. Our vision is to help create a life free from mental illness. This can only be achieved by funding ground-breaking research to understand what causes mental illness, how to treat it, and ultimately, how to prevent it from happening in the first place. Visit breakthroughfoundation.org.au

S A Care

Escape the Fringe buzz at S A CARE's Carer's Lounge—a calm retreat for our disability community. Featuring a calm sensory zone with interactive screens, bubble tubes, and an interactive 'magic carpet.' Alongside there will be a kitchen and lounge area for food and medicine preparation. In addition, there is an adult sized change room featuring a height-adjustable change table and hoist.

S A CARE CARERS LOUNGE

In partnership with S A CARE, Adelaide Fringe is delivering a Carers Lounge located in Rymill Park outside Tandanya. The SACARE Carers Lounge is a dedicated disability space that caters to child and adult changing, feeding, and sensory needs. The area will feature a sensory 'zone' and changing place with height adjustable change table and lifter.
